Anglo-American University, where the world comes to you.

Located in the heart of Europe inside the restored Thurn-Taxis Palace, Anglo-American University allots students a truly international education. AAU has been recognized as one of the most international universities in Europe, providing students the opportunity to learn from world-class faculty alongside classmates from over 80 different countries.

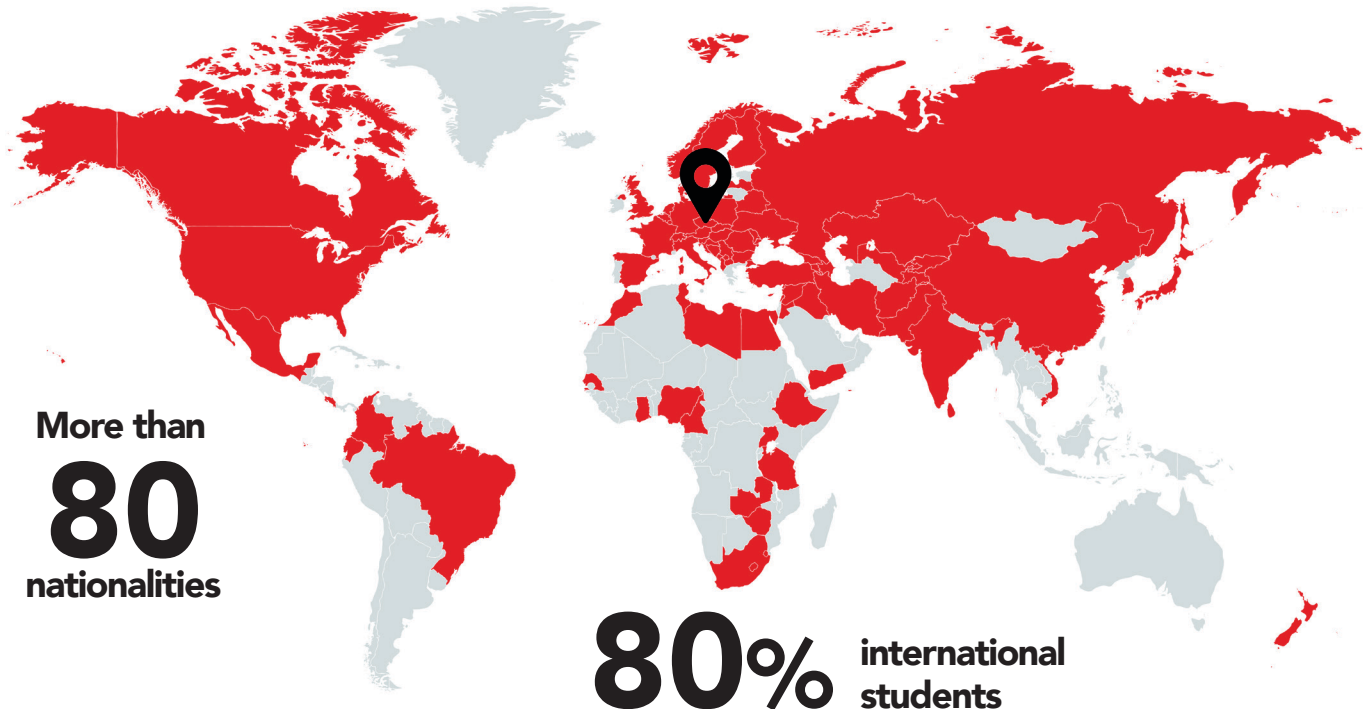

AAU prides itself on small, interactive classes designed for authentic engagement and discussion. The individual attention from professors, diverse community and emphasis on practical learning closes the gap between education and real-world experience, thus preparing students for the global marketplace.

The oldest private university in the Czech Republic to use English as the language of instruction, AAU continually pushes students to achieve their highest potential. Students can get involved with academic research, internships, 40+ exchange and Erasmus opportunities as well as an array of student clubs and events.

Welcome to one of the most international universities in the world!

At AAU, Prague is your campus.

Prague is a city that through the ages has connected different cultures, mindsets and lifestyles. Recognized as one the most beautiful and enchanting locations in Europe, Prague has a long history of education and attracting students from across the globe.

Ranked as the best city in the world to be a university student by APPJobs Global, Prague boasts an array of affordable options for students to dine, enjoy live entertainment and explore the city's stunning architecture right outside the campuses' palace doors. Thanks to its central location, Prague also serves as a great homebase for travel. Not to mention the cost of living is significantly lower than other comparable cities, making it a cost-effective option for students.

*Please note there are additional fees for the Bachelor of Laws Program (LLB) program, for details please visit the University of London website here.

Scholarships & Financial Aid

AAU merit-based scholarships are awarded to degree seeking students in AAU degree programs who have successfully completed at least 5 courses for credit during their previous active semester at the university. Every student is automatically considered for the merit-based program. Scholarships, ranging from partial to whole amounts, are awarded to students at the beginning of every active term. The scholarship amounts are determined based on the student’s AAU grade point average (GPA) and the length of the student’s undergraduate study.

Every year AAU invests in its most dedicated students with nearly $200,000 in financial support.

Note: Merit-based scholarships do not apply to our MBA program.

*Please note that our tuition rates are fixed in CZK and the amount in USD may vary depending on the current exchange rate. Listed below are the amounts according to the rate of CZK 22.92/USD 1 valid at time of printing.

"With the American WASC accreditation, the multitude of exchange options, and being located in the heart of Europe, AAU was an easy choice for me. Despite its small size AAU is a big hot pot of language and culture that poses nothing but benefit when engaging in discussion or debate in or out of the classroom."
